QUESTION OF THE WEEK – October 25, 2026

Who is the "neighbor" in your life right now who is the most difficult to love?
What makes loving them a test of your faith rather than just a natural reaction?

Genesis 1:26-27 - Matthew Thompson

Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, to be like us. Let them be stewards of the fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the cattle, the wild animals, and everything that crawls on the ground. Humankind was created in God's reflection: in the divine image, God created them; female and male, God made them.

Mark 12:28-34

One of the religious scholars who had listened to them debating and had observed how well Jesus had answered them, now came up and put a question to him: "Which is the foremost of all the commandments?"

Jesus replied, "This is the foremost: Hear, O Israel, God, our God, is one. You must love the Most High God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these."

The scholar said to Jesus, "Well spoken, Teacher! What you have said is true: the Most High is one and there is no other. To love God with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself—this is far more important than any burnt offering or sacrifice."

Jesus, seeing how wisely this scholar had spoken, said, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And after that no one dared to question Jesus any more.

O Young and Fearless Prophet

 3. O help us stand un - swerv-ing a - gainst war's blood-y way,
 4. Stir up in us a pro - test a - gainst our greed for wealth,
 5. O young and fear-less Proph-et, we need thy pres-ence here,

thy life is still a sum-mons to serve hu-man-i - ty;
 while ev - er on the hill - top be - fore thee loomed the cross;
 where hate and lust and false-hood hold back Christ's ho-ly sway;
 while oth - ers starve and hun - ger and plead for work and health;
 a - mid our pride and glo - ry to see thy face ap - pear;

to make our thoughts and ac - tions less prone to please the crowd, thy stead-fast face set for - ward where love and du - ty shone,
 for - bid false love of coun - try that blinds us to his call,
 where homes with lit - tle chil - dren cry out for lack of bread,
 once more to hear thy chal-enge a - bove our nois - y day, to stand with hum - ble cour - age for truth with hearts un-cowed.

 while we be - tray so quick - ly and leave thee there a - lone.
 who lifts a - bove the na - tions the u - ni - ty of all.
 who live their years sore bur - dened be - neath a gloom - y dread.
 a - gain to lead us for - ward a - long God's ho - ly way.
