Prayers of the People & The Lord's Prayer — Gregg Atkins

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK – November 8, 2026

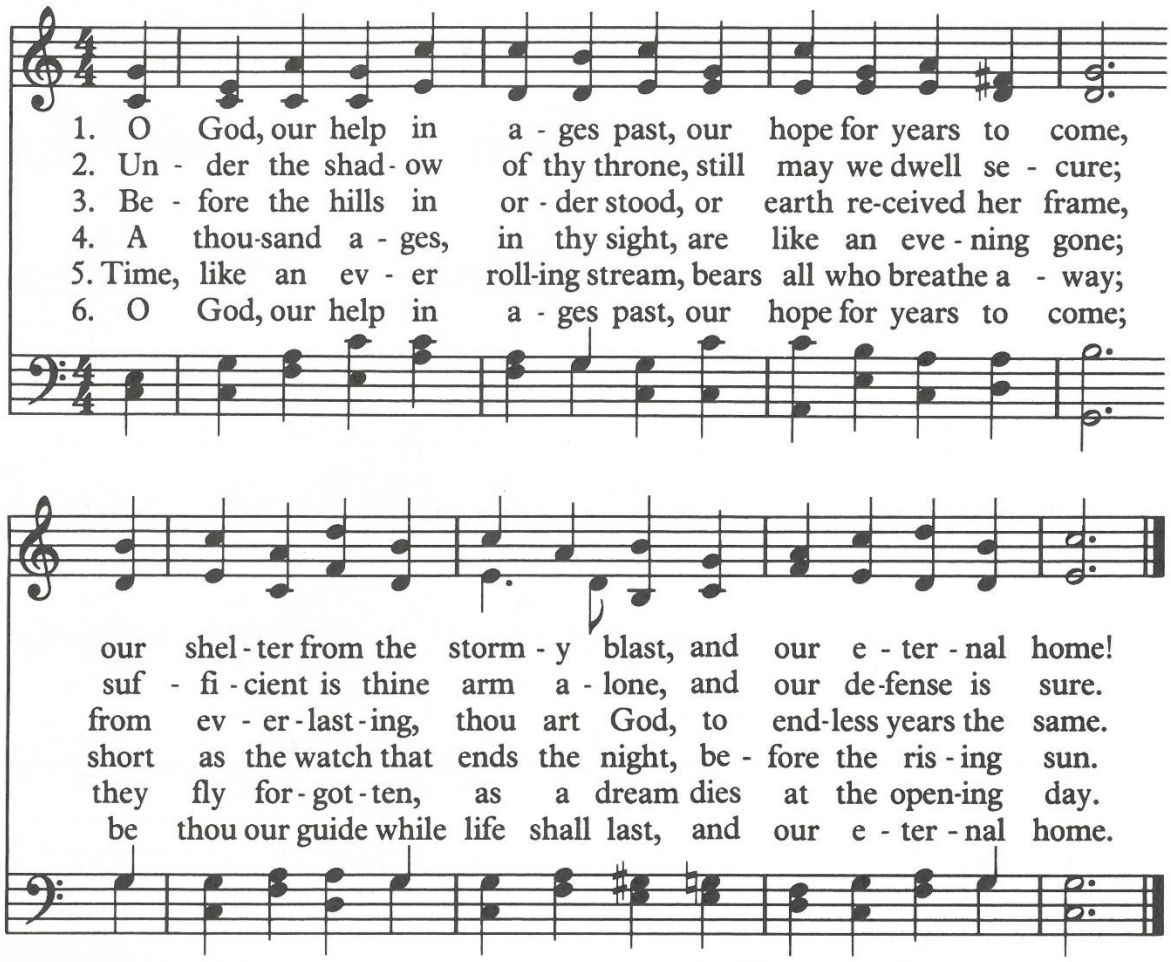

In what subtle ways can we take God's blessings for granted instead of offering Him glory and thanks?

I Thessalonians 5:12-18 – Matthew Thompson
We ask you, sisters and brothers, to respect those who labor among you, who have charge over you in Christ as your teachers. Esteem them highly, with a special love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. We urge you, sisters and brothers, to warn the idlers, cheer up the faint hearted, support the weak, and be patient with everyone. Make sure that no one repays one evil with another. Always seek what is good for each other, and for all people. Rejoice always, pray constantly, and give thanks for everything – for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Romans 1:21-22
For although they knew God, they didn't give God honor or praise, and never even said "Thank you"; instead, their reasoning became increasingly empty and inept, and their undiscerning hearts were darkened. Professing to be wise they became fools.

Habakkuk 3:17-18
The fig tree has no buds, the vines bear, no harvest, the olive oil, yield fail, the fields produced no yield, the sheep vanish from the fold, and there are no cattle in the stalls. But I will rejoice in Yahweh, I will exalt in God, my savior.
