QUESTION OF THE WEEK – November 1, 2026

What is the best or most impactful testimony you have ever heard someone share?

1 Thessalonians 2:9-13 - Dr. N'guessan Affi

Let us remind you, sisters and brothers, of our toil and hardship; we worked night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone while we preached the Good News of God to you. You are witnesses, and so is God, that our treatment of you since you have become believers has been just, upright and impeccable.

You likewise know how we treated every one of you, as parents do their children— encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy of God, who calls you into glory and the kin-dom. And we constantly thank God for the way you received the words we preached to you, not as our word but as the word of God, which it really was. And it changed your lives when you believed it.

Be Present at Our Table, Lord

The musical score is written for a two-part setting in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The lyrics are: 'Be pres - ent at our ta - ble, Lord; be here and ev - ery - where a - dored; thy crea - tures bless, and grant that we may feast in par - a - dise with thee.' The melody is simple and hymn-like, with the vocal line often moving in parallel motion with the bass line. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Be pres - ent at our ta - ble, Lord; be here and ev - ery - where a - dored; thy crea - tures bless, and grant that we may feast in par - a - dise with thee.

WORDS: John Cennick, 1741, alt.
