QUESTION OF THE WEEK – October 11, 2026

How does God's peace act as a "guard" over our hearts and minds?
What is it guarding us against?

Philippians 4:1-9 - Carissa Stenzel

For these reasons, my sisters and brothers-you whom I so love and long for, you who are my joy and my crown - continue, my dear ones, to stand firm in Christ Jesus. I implore Euodia and Syntyche to come to an agreement with each other in Christ. And I ask you, Syzygus, to be a true comrade and help these coworkers. These two women struggled at my side in defending the Good News, along with Clement and the others who worked with me. Their names are written in the Book of Life.

Rejoice in the Savior always! I say it again: Rejoice! Let everyone see your forbearing spirit. Our Savior is near. Dismiss all anxiety from your minds; instead, present your needs to God through prayer and petition, giving thanks for all circumstances. Then God's own peace, which is beyond all understanding, will stand guard over your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, my sisters and brothers, your thoughts should be wholly directed to all that is true, all that deserves respect, all that is honest, pure, decent, admirable, virtuous or worthy of praise. Live according to what you have learned and accepted, what you have heard me say and seen me do. Then will the God of peace be with you.

Guide My Feet

2208

1. Guide my feet while I run this race.

Yes, my Lord!

Guide my feet while I run this race.

Yes, my Lord!

Guide my feet while I run this race, for I don't want to run this race in vain! (race in vain)

2. Hold my hand ... 3. Stand by me ... 4. I'm your child ...
5. Search my heart ... 6. Guide my feet ...
