QUESTION OF THE WEEK – September 20, 2026

Who is the "neighbor" in your life right now that is the hardest for you to love?
What makes loving them difficult?

Matthew 22:34-40, Psalm 126:1-6 - Loretta Frank

Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had left the Sadducees speechless, they gathered together, and one of them, an expert on the Law, attempted to trick Jesus with this question: "Teacher, which commandment of the Law is the greatest?" Jesus answered: 'You must love the Most High God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.' "That is the greatest and first commandment. 39 The second is like it: 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments the whole Law is based-and the Prophets as well."

Psalm 126:1-6

When Yahweh brought us captives back to Zion, we thought we were dreaming!
Our mouths were filled with laughter then, our tongues with songs of joy. And from the nations we heard, "Their God has done great things for them." Yes Yahweh has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy.
Now set our captive hearts free, Yahweh!
Make them like streams in the driest desert!
Then those who now sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy; those who go out weeping as they carry their seed for sowing will come back with shouts of joy as they carry their harvest home.

 You are the flame that will lighten the dark,
 sending sparkles of hope, faith, and love;
 you are the shepherds to lead the whole world
 through valleys and pastures of peace.
 You are the friends that I chose for myself,
 the word that I want to proclaim.
 You are the new kingdom built on a rock
 where justice and truth always reign.
Refrain

3.
 You are the life that will nurture the plant;
 you're the waves in a turbulent sea;
 yesterday's yeast is beginning to rise,
 a new loaf of bread it will yield.
 There is no place for a city to hide,
 nor a mountain can cover its might;
 may your good deeds show a world in despair
 a path that will lead all to God.

The Trees of the Field

You shall go out with joy — and be led forth with peace; — the moun-tains and the hills will break forth be - fore you; there'll be shouts of joy, — and all the trees of the field will clap, will clap their hands. And all the trees of the field will clap their hands, — the trees of the field will clap their hands, — the trees of the field will clap their hands — while you go out with joy.
